That makes 2018 a make-or-break year for Boston Beer. As writer Bryan Roth warns, Boston Beer Co.'s actual beer production has fallen from 88.9% of its total output in 2010 to just 57.2% last year. Unless the Brewers Association changes the segment of its craft brewer definition that demands brewers produce a majority of their alcohol volume in beer, Boston Beer Co. could be out of the craft club by next year.
