~~Kody Keplinger is so good. A Midsummer's Nightmare is the story of Whitley who has struggled for a lot of years to get her parents attention (drinking, partying, smoking). She's virtually friendless and couldn't care less. But when she goes to spend a seemingly average summer with her dad, she finds he's getting married.~~

~~A Midsummer's Nightmare was fast, fiery, and fabulous! My first Kody Keplinger book, but mostly certainly not my last. I applaud Keplinger for creating such a rich and believable storyline and pairing it with deep and intensely emotional characters. Whitley is pretty much the perfect example of strong book heroines.~~

A Midsummer's Nightmare by Kody Keplinger - Books on ...

A Midsummer's Nightmare is, to date, my favorite of Keplinger's books, showcasing her growing talent immensely. With a very compelling and beautifully scripted protagonist, and diving deeper into the emotions this time around, A Midsummer's Nightmare is both stunning and aching.

In her third novel for teens, Keplinger (The DUFF) creates a wonderfully blunt, caustic, and self-possessed heroine in Whitley. While the ending is a bit drawn out, the story's emotional realism, Whitley's transformation (and acid narration), and the romance between her and Nathan make for a fiery and engrossing read. Ages 15 up.
