Explained: Why some Australians want their national anthem changed Recently, Gladys Berejiklian, the leader of Australia's most populous state, spoke out against the anthem, saying the line 'we are young and free' dismisses centuries of indigenous history.

Explained: Why some Australians want their national anthem ...

I would love Gladys Berejiklian's change to our national anthem to work. I'd love to hear race activists finally sing that "Australians all" are - yes! - just "one".
