In conclusion: The f650GS is a confidence-inspiring little bike that is perfect for not only beginners but also anyone who prefers a smaller, lighter bike. There's a movement these days toward smaller bikes, with many people looking at the big adventure bikes with derision for their impracticality off road.

The standard GS ranks fourth on BMW's sales leaders, and the more off-road-oriented Dakar version sits in seventh.

This year BMW offers a new version of the F650 to expand its envelope, the F650CS, a bike designed for upwardly mobile young and re-entry riders. We'll begin the riding impression of the F650CS
