Deuteronomy is anything but a mere second giving of the law. Deuteronomy is theological hermeneutics on a grand scale. The person of Moses does in the guise of three speeches takes the entire Torah and casts Israel's relationship with Yahweh into something everyone can grasp: a Covenant of Love. There are three, unequal, gravitational centers to Deuteronomy (they are the black holes that control everything).

Deuteronomy: Gospel of Love #1 - Stoned-Campbell Disciple

The key text of Deuteronomy is clear. "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart" (Deut. 6:4-6). As Jesus says, "This is the great and first commandment" (Matt. 22:38).

Watch Spoken Gospel's introduction video on the book of Deuteronomy, which outlines the book's main theme and how it is fulfilled in Jesus.

Deuteronomy tells the story of Israel's inability to obey God's Law. This disobedience leads to death, exile, and hopelessness. But since Jesus keeps the whole Law for us, we can be free from death and enter into eternal life with him.

Dr. Schultz shows the reader the importance of God's love in the covenant relationship and how God requires not just legal compliance with a code, but love in return. The second chapter of this book is the most important and helpful. It is here that the author unpacks the many aspects of the love relationship encouraged by the book of Deuteronomy.

Rather, the love of Jehovah for His people is the heart of the Old Testament book. Deuteronomy: The Gospel of Love offers a simple but thorough exposition of this important though frequently overlooked divine record. Bringing rewarding insights from the original Hebrew text, it puts heavy stress on the love relationship between God and His specially chosen people. This commentary reflects a rare grasp of the Hebrew language and the Old Testament Scriptures.

We love him by keeping his commandments because he is our God; he is not our God because we love him by keeping his commandments. That is grace. It is gospel. And because we have received this grace, we keep the second greatest commandment, "you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31). We love because he loved (1 John 4:19).

The Gospel in Deuteronomy | Crossway Articles

The gospel of Deuteronomy is that life—and obedience—are finally, ultimately, in God's hands. This means that life is first and last a gift, that the land promised the people of God is a gift, that God stands with a little band of unknowns and their leader, and with the alien, the widow and the orphan, all of whom are beloved in the eyes of God.
