From this shared aesthetic quest "Dior, The Art of Colour" was born. For the first time last year in Arles, this exhibition presented the photographic and chromatic universes of the three artistic directors of the House of Dior. Today, Dior decided to renew the experience by launching an unprecedented prize called the Dior Photography Award for Young Talents, in partnership with the Ecole Nationale Supérieure de la Photographie and hosted by Luma Arles.

This passion, transposed to Dior makeup from the very start, notably in the Explosion de Couleurs collection by Serge Lutens in 1969, is celebrated in the new book Dior: The Art of Color, the work of art director Marc Ascoli and author Jerry Stafford. From the first pages, the iconic looks and shades enter into a dialogue with works of art.
