This is a relatively short book about Marxist philosophy. It is not a book about "elementary principles of philosophy", as its title suggests. I found it really interesting, for it is the first time I find something readable about dialectic materialism, although I must say I didnt find it convincing.

the question is to point out that philosophy is derived from the Greek word meaning ' love of wisdom ' . However, this is rather vague and even less helpful than saying that philosophy is what philoso-phers do. So some very general comments about what philosophy is are needed. Philosophy is an activity: it is a way of thinking about certain sorts
