In preparing to conclude this study on God's purpose for the family, consider how your family is falling short of what God has for you. Confess your shortcomings and seek His power and aid in becoming more of the family He would have you to be. Close with a devotional reading of PSALM 133, which describes the results of good familial relations.

Family begins with the marriage of a man to a woman. Marriage is a God covenant, a God idea—it was not just a good idea thought up by someone down the centuries. The permanency of such a covenant, in an age where marriage is anything but permanent, is the primary foundation to create a good bedrock for a godly family.” Principle Two: Raising Godly Children Is a Parent’s Mandate and Responsibility “God said to the first married couple, ‘Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth.’
