iii. EARLY ISLAMIC PERIOD. Introduction. It might well be questioned whether there is, strictly speaking, any “ historiography of Persia in the early Islamic period ” at all, since it is by no means clear that there was an Islamic “ Persia ” prior to the rise of the Safavids. As lamented in the Middle Persian apocalyptic literature (which could be regarded as an esoteric form of historiography that projects past events into the future; on this aspect of Islamic historiography, see now D ...
