How To Read Shakespeare is a slim volume, 120 pages. The author, Nicholas Royle, takes an interesting approach to this condensed study: he selects a single word from each of seven plays and shows how that word sets the tone or echoes and re-echoes through that play.

How to Read Shakespeare by Nicholas Royle

His primary concern is with letting the reader experience - anew or for the first time - the extraordinary pleasure and stimulation of reading Shakespeare. There are extracts from some of Shakespeare's most popular plays, including The Merchant of Venice, Julius Caesar, As You Like It, Hamlet, Othello, Macbeth and Antony and Cleopatra.
