Hub Fans Bid Kid Adieu is a transcendent tribute to baseball and one of its most vivid and accomplished figures, as captured by one of America's most legendary authors. As the author expresses it in tribute to the athlete, that truly "crowds the throat with joy" ... and fills the heart and brings tears to the eyes, to boot.

Hub Fans Bid Kid Adieu by John Updike | Journal. Supporting the underlying nostalgia, Updike uses a blend of statistics and imagery to retell William's career, his highs and his lows, and when things were looking terrible. He talks like a Sox fan, about how most of the team at the time was "a jangling medley of incompetent youth and aging competence."
