"This Land Is Your Land" is one of the United States' most famous folk songs. Its lyrics were written by American folk singer Woody Guthrie in 1940, based on an existing melody, a Carter Family tune called "When the World's on Fire", in critical response to Irving Berlin's "God Bless America." When Guthrie was tired of hearing Kate Smith sing "God Bless America" on the radio in the late 1930s, he sarcastically called his song "God Blessed America for Me" before renaming it "This Land Is Your Land"

Lyrics for This If Your Land by Max Lucado. Didn't anyone ever tell you Didn't anyone ever say Did you capture a vision of glory. She held out her hand today It's reaching to the broken warmth Right down to where you stand Didn't anyone ever tell you This is your land Didn't anyone ever tell you It doesn't matter the last will be first For the sad and the meek and the righteous And all those who will hunger and thirst So let the poor in spirit know These dreams are not of sand Didn't anyone ...
