INTERNATIONAL LAW: CONFLICT OF LAWS: FAMILY LAW PART-1. A foreign judgment does not have any direct effect in England, but it can be recognised and enforced under various systems of rules, depending on its country of origin. Enforcement involves the successful party seeking to execute the judgment in England, using normal English methods of execution.

INTERNATIONAL LAW: CONFLICT OF LAWS: FAMILY LAW PART-1 ...

Conflict of Laws Foundation. The conflict of laws is based upon the principle of choosing the most rational law to apply in a given case so as to give a fair result. It is known by different names, but none of them are accurate. In a federal system like the United States where the conflicts are mainly between different state laws, the term "conflict of laws" is more popular since these rules are rarely applied to international issues. However, it's still a general term that also applies ...
