Review of Section 58 of the Children Act 2004

The Children Act 2004 is an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. The Act amended the Children Act 1989, largely in consequence of the Victoria Climbié inquiry. The Act is now the basis for most official administration considered helpful to children, notably bringing all local government functions of children's welfare and education under the statutory authority of local Directors of Children's Services. The Act also created the ContactPoint database; this, however, has since been axed.

Legal professionals play an essential role in upholding the rule of law and helping their clients access justice and enforce their rights. Rights are of little consequence if they cannot be enforced. I am proud of how our great profession, and the Law Society, have worked throughout the entirety of the pandemic to ensure that those rights and that access have meaning.
