Apple Magic Keyboard: Apple revamped the bluetooth keyboard and rebranded it 'Apple Magic Keyboard' in 2015, and they change the power switch from a circular 'momentary' contact switch on the edge of the keyboard to a losing shaped slide switch on the back edge. From comments, its not clear if this new design is a momentary contact switch (you slide it and it returns to the neutral position itself), or it locks into the on position, and must be manually moved back to the off position.

The Apple Wireless Keyboard is a wireless keyboard built for Macintosh computers and compatible with iOS devices. It interacts over Bluetooth wireless technology and unlike its wired version, it has no USB connectors or ports. Both generations have low-power features when not in use. It was discontinued on October 13, 2015, and was succeeded by the new Magic Keyboard.
