~~Observer review: The Nautical Chart by Arturo Pérez-Reverte~~

"The Nautical Chart" (Reviewed by Hagen Baye NOV 7, 2004) Arturo Perez-Réverte is said to be the author who single handedly got his fellow Spaniards to start buying books again. If his novel, The Nautical Chart, is representative of his writing and story-telling skills, then I see good reason for that.

Consummate Perez-Reverte A ship, a treasure, a mysterious woman, a naive sailor all mixed together with Perez-Reverte's fine story telling. Not everyone is a fan of Perez-Reverte. I am. Great nautical tale. Guidall's reading brought characters to life and kept the slow-building tension. Well done. 4 people found this helpful
