Consumer spending outlook Consumer spending is the lifeblood of the retail industry. Overall, we expect real consumer spending growth to slow to 2.2 percent in 2020 from 2.5 percent in 2019. Going into 2020, consumers face three key challenges: Gains in the labor market haven't translated to strong wage growth.

2020 Retail Industry Trends | Deloitte US

The Covid-19 pandemic has driven a shift towards a frictionless, low-impact society in which brands and consumers have little to no interaction within a physical space. The future of the retail space will have to adapt to a consumer who wants to control how much they opt in or out of human interaction, as they forge their own in-store experience.
