Bathfield A charity is exempt from tax on income arising in respect of rents or other receipts from land or property that it holds for charitable purposes insofar as the income is applied for charitable purposes only. This exemption includes, for example, rental income. The exemption does not generally extend to income derived from additional services such as catering or conferencing activities. The above exemption applies to income from both UK and overseas property.

Abstract. Driven by increasing pressure on local budgets, some municipalities have sought a reexamination of the property-tax exemption for nonprofit organizations provided by state law. The property tax is a major source of revenue for many municipalities, and large nonprofits such as universities and hospitals may own significant portions of land within a given city.

If you leave something to charity in your will, then it won't count towards the total taxable value of your estate. This is called leaving a 'charitable legacy'. You can also cut the Inheritance Tax rate on the rest of your estate from 40% to 36%, if you leave at least 10% of your 'net estate' to a charity.
