Round River From The Journals

To those who know the charm of Aldo Leopold's writing in A Sand County Almanac, this collection from his journals and essays will be a new delight. The journal entries included here were written in camp during his many field trips--hunting, fishing, and exploring--and they indicate the source of ideas on land ethics found in his longer essays. They reflect as well two long canoe trips in ...

Round River is partnered with the Fundaciòn Cordillera Tropical (FCT), and we have some exciting new projects this term. The first one, that I`m most excited about, deals with trying to set up camera traps (cameras triggered by motion) to get photos of a couple of species of small cats that have been seen in the area where we work (the Mazar Wildlife Reserve of Southern Sangay National Park).
