Wereworld: Shadow of the Hawk sees the introduction of many fresh faces, including an assortment of exotic therianthropes (that is, ruling were-creatures) as well as “normal” humans- Drew’s brother, Trent Ferran being just one of many. Jobling takes the risk of alienating the reader in favour of providing a rich and colossal back-drop to his story.

A large avian eye stared down at Drew as he stood in the Hawklady's shadow. (Shadow of the Hawk, p. 248) Wereworld is not all dazzling swordplay in which the Good Guys always win. Many major sympathetic supporting characters are killed one by one, and Drew himself is maimed. As he tells his fellow gladiators in Shadow of the Hawk:
