Joshua Stein wasn't sure what type of law he wanted to practice until he took a Columbia Law class in commercial real estate transactions in the late 1970s. There, he learned the step-by-step rigor of real estate deals as well as the creative possibilities within those deals. He's now one of the top real estate lawyers in one of the top real estate markets in the world, New York City, which also happens to be the epicenter for the COVID-19 pandemic.
