Sula: Study Guide | SparkNotes

The Bluest Eye, published in 1970, is the first novel written by Toni Morrison. The novel takes place in Lorain, Ohio (Morrison's hometown), and tells the story of a young African-American girl named Pecola who grows up during the years following the Great Depression. Set in 1941, the story tells that due to her mannerisms and dark skin, she is consistently regarded as "ugly".

The Bluest Eye - Wikipedia

In Toni Morrison's novel Sula, the author illustrates the main theme in the novel to justify what is "good" versus what is "evil" and how emotion and behavior contribute to that notion. Sula Peace is a complex, insensitive and spontaneous character in the novel that transitions into someone the town labels as "evil". Sula is a wild and irrational young girl that let's her ...

Sula Critical Evaluation - Essay - eNotes.com

Toni Morrison's first novel, The Bluest Eye (1970), was acclaimed as the work of an important talent, written--as John Leonard said in The New York Times --in a prose "so precise, so faithful to speech and so charged with pain and wonder that the novel becomes poetry." Sula has the same power, the same beauty.
