Sutra of the Wise and the Foolish: Stanley Frye ...

The Sutra of the Wise and the Fool is a collection of tales translated from Central Asian languages into Chinese in the 4th century and then translated by Chos-Grub (ཆོས་གུབ་) into Tibetan in the 9th century. The simple plot lines of these tales has made them popular readings in first year Tibetan courses.

The bibliographical comments on The Sutra of the Wise and the Foolish in the Ch'u san-tsang chi chi [Collected Notes on the Making of the Tripitaka] (compiled by Seng-yu [445-518] between about 505 and 515) provide tantalizingly specific, but not altogether conclusive, information concerning the linguistic antecedents of this translated collection of edifying Buddhist tales. The initial impression one gains is that the text was translated into Chinese not from Sanskrit or another Indian ...
