Princess And The Pea

"The Princess and the Pea" (Danish:

"Prinsessen paa Ærten";

The Princess

And translation: "The Princess on the Pea") is a literary fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen about a young woman whose royal identity is established by a test of her sensitivity.

The tale was first published with three others by Andersen in an inexpensive booklet on 8 May 1835 in Copenhagen by C. A.

She went into the bedroom, took all the bed clothes off and laid a pea on the bedstead: then she took twenty mattresses and piled them on top of the pea, and then twenty feather beds on top of the mattresses. This was where the princess was to sleep that night. In the morning they asked her how she slept. 'Oh
