The Supernatural Books are prophecies in the form of a set of novels chronicling the lives and deeds of Sam and Dean Winchester, written by Chuck Shurley under the pseudonym of Carver Edlund. The brothers are not particularly fond of them, seeing that the volumes directly violate the privacy of their own personal lives.

~~Supernatural – Supernatural... Scary Just Got Sexy!~~

The supernatural genre is fiction about witches, vampires, ghosts, werewolves, shape shifters, demons, angels, or anything else in the paranormal or otherworldly realm. A sub-category is "supernatural-romance" in which the plot revolves around the main character and the romance storyline.

The Book of the Damned is a very powerful dark magic book. It was once possessed by the Styne Family. It disappeared 100 years ago, but later it was unearthed by Charlie Bradbury from a monastery library in Spain. It was found along with some research notes in the monastery crypt by the friar that buried it.

I read The Supernatural Book of Monsters, Spirits, Demons and Ghouls. It didn't have one continuous story or anything but had little snippets of cases before their father went missing and quite a lot about the legends behind all of the monsters. It was pretty great and even had pictures and stuff. It was a little funny/witty sometimes as well ...

The declaration of light and its creation was a supernatural act by the One who is Light. The first mention carries all the way through to the Book of the Revelation of Jesus Christ. Light (in any form) is a supernatural act, whether the light of creation, or the spiritual Light for men, it must come from the container of Light, the Lord Jesus Christ.
