The aim of the Property Enquiry Certificate is to disclose any notices or matters which appear in relation to the property. Examples of matters that are disclosed are applications for planning permission, building warrants and whether the property is connected to the water or drainage systems. Very occasionally the Property Enquiry Certificate will provide an indication of some overriding issues such as the intention to build a road adjacent to the property; such matters are very important.

"Property is theft!" is a slogan coined by French anarchist Pierre-Joseph Proudhon in his 1840 book What is Property? Or, an Inquiry into the Principle of Right and of Government. If I were asked to answer the following question: What is slavery? and I should answer in one word, It is murder!, my meaning would be understood at once. No extended argument would be required to show that the power to remove a man's mind, will, and personality, is the power of life and death, and that it makes a man
